The cornice is ornately detailed with paired brackets and is of wood. The storefront, however, has been substantially remodeled thus seriously compromising the original architectural integrity of this older downtown building. It does, however, contribute to the architectural significance of the District as the only example of this type of concrete material in the District.		Historical Statement: 277-279 Cedar in 1891 This concrete block may be of local (A) manufacture. See 23 N. Fifth an another example. Little is known about the manufacturer--a Captain Kirtland--who was in business in Sturgeon Bay in 1881 and 1882 (B)
